VOTE!

• People with disabilities can take charge of their future
• with one simple gesture—a vote. July 11th saw more than
• 50 people hear about the HELP AMERICA VOTE ACT
• (HAVA) and play with the new accessible voting machine.
• Ten people not previously registered, registered to vote.

• There is still time for anyone to register to vote in the
• upcoming election. The County Courthouse has forms.
• Central Washington Disability Resources located at 200
• East 4th Avenue in Ellensburg can also register people.
• The key piece is simply to take the first step...register if
• you are not already, support people to register and have a
• voice. Participate in the process and take charge of the • future.

Will and Ted's Most Excellent Adventure

Will Campbell and Ted Hancock are officially certified trainers for Right Response. The first trainings were in June. Ask your program manager for information on upcoming classes. Right Response will be provided to everyone. People have consistently asked for increased skills and tools in working with people with behavioral challenges. Right Response is one of those critical tools.

When safety is your responsibility, the RIGHT RESPONSE Workshop is an essential toolbox for determining the best course of action in any situation to achieve a safe, lasting and positive result. These tools provided in the training help successfully manage aggression or behavioral challenges and prevent such incidents from occurring in the future.

The three guiding principles of this philosophy are:

- The intervention must meet the needs of our client.
- We must constantly reflect respect for the client.
- The safety of everyone in the environment is our highest priority.

If you would like to go to a workshop, let your Program Manager know and you will be scheduled as soon as possible

Punny, punny!

It is said that the ability to make and understand PUNS is the highest level of language development.
Here are the top 10 winners in the International Pun Contest.

1. A vulture boards an airplane, carrying two dead raccoons. The Stewardess looks at him and says, 'I'm sorry, sir, only one carrion allowed per passenger.'

2. Two fish swim into a concrete wall. The one turns to the other and says, 'Dam!'

3. Two Eskimos sitting in a kayak were chilly, so they lit a fire in the craft. Unsurprisingly, it sank, proving once again that you can't have your kayak and heat it, too.

4. Two hydrogen atoms meet. One says, 'I've lost my electron.' The other says, 'Are you sure?' The first replies, 'Yes, I'm positive.'

5. Did you hear about the Buddhist who refused Novocain during a root canal? His goal: transcendental medication.

6. A group of chess enthusiasts checked into a hotel and were standing in the lobby discussing their recent tournament victories. After about an hour, the manager came out of the office and asked them to disperse. But why they asked, as they moved off. 'Because,' he said, 'I can't stand chess-nuts boasting in an open foyer.'

7. A woman has twins and gives them up for adoption. One of them goes to a family in Egypt and is named Ahmal. The other goes to a family in Spain; they name him Juan. Years later, Juan sends a picture of himself to his birth mother. Upon receiving the picture, she tells her husband that she wishes she also had a picture of Ahmal. Her husband responds, 'They're twins! If you've seen Juan, you've seen Ahmal.'

8. A group of friars were behind on their belfry payments, so they opened a small florist shop to raise funds. Since everyone liked to buy flowers from the men of God, a rival florist across town thought the competition was unfair. He asked the good fathers to close down, but they would not. He went back and begged the friars to close. They ignored him. So, the rival florist hired Hugh MacTaggart, the roughest and most vicious thug in town to 'persuade' them to close. Hugh beat up the friars and trashed their store, saying he'd be back if they didn't close up shop. Terrified, they did so, thereby proving that only Hugh can prevent florist friars.

9. Mahatma Gandhi, as you know, walked barefoot most of the time, which produced an impressive set of calluses on his feet. He also ate very little, which made him rather frail and, with his odd diet, he suffered from bad breath. This made him (Oh, man, this is SO BAD, it's good) a super calloused fragile mystic hexed by halitosis.

10. And, finally, there was the person who sent ten different puns to friends, with the hope that at least one of the puns would make them laugh. No pun in ten did.
